

I strongly oppose increased ownership of local tv by media conglomerates. I am outraged that the commissioners and congress are even considering allowing such to happen. I oppose censorship. I believe that the constitutional right to free speech is the right of ALL AMERICANS, and not simply the select few who control the wealth and power of our nation.